'Tis the season to be merry, yes it's December or possibly January depending on when you're picking this up. Those who aren't indulging in Christmas cheer will no doubt be out answering a few emergency calls this month and possibly into the New Year as well.

If you are at home and can bear to drag yourself away from the party atmosphere for an hour or so, as usual you'll find the usual roundup of news and some interesting stories and events from the past few months inside this issue.

Whether it's 1960s supermodel, Twiggy, in a lather and looking as good as ever down in Battersea or Health and Safety Officer Dave Sedman's farewell column looking at the perils of mass decontamination and ill fitting paper trousers - we cover everything you need to know, and in the case of the latter uncover everything you don't.

But on a more serious note, we also take an in-depth look at the flood defence preparations which took place late last year aimed at avoiding a repeat of the 1953 East Coast flooding disaster. We also cover Cheshire Fire and Rescue Service's contribution to the relief effort following the magnitude 7 earthquake in Indonesia.

Enjoy the read!
